House Without Lot Homeless

Will county's building commissioner, John Ferguson, has not yet given a decision in the housemoving that has stirred up some controversy at Mokena. A hearing was conducted by Ferguson in the new court house last Sept. 16.

Meanwhile the house in question is still resting on the wheels it was moved on, just waiting for a chance to settle down on the foundations that are ready for it.

The house is a two-story structure, owned by Mrs. Charles E. Hecht, 191st St., east of Mokena, and it was moved from Mokena to First St. to the south end of Normandy Lane, which brings it near the Rock Island Lines right-of-way.

Mr. and Mrs. Corwyn Brunner, who live next door to where the house would be placed, oppose its location there. A two-story house spoils the neighborhood, they contend, and their lawyer, Redmond Lyons, associated with Vinson & Singer, Joliet, pointed out that under agreement in force in the subdivision roofing paper or black felt paper could not be used as a substitute for siding. This two-story house, he said, was encased in an imitation brick paper that could be construed to be roofing paper, and therefore it was in violation of the covenant. The fact that Mrs. Hecht is to have this imitation brick business torn off and the house provided with new siding does not alter the fact that it is in violation now, the lawyer said. This prompted an aside from one of the spectators that under such an interpretation a house could never be built there because there would be a time when the exterior walls or uprights would be covered with black insulation or tar paper and so far no one has devised a way to put the tar paper and the siding on simultaneously.

There were neighboring householders present who contend that there is something in the covenant covering the subdivision that prohibits erection of a two story house there.

Norman Bradley, who re-subdivided Brightwood subdivision said he retained all the restrictions that covered the original subdivision and that none of them prohibited any kind of siding and there was no restriction against a two story house. In fact, Bradley said, it was spelled out that a two-story house cannot contain less than 800 square feet on the first floor. It is 900 square feet for a one-story house.

Ferguson pointed out that his office was concerned only as to whether the house in question met the standards of the Will County building code. He said on Tuesday that it would be the latter part of this week before he rendered an opinion. He said the people directly involved, the Hechts and the Brunners, would be informed of the decision before it was made public.

L-W Invites Parents To Classes

Back - to - school - night at Lincoln-Way High School will be held at 8 p.m., Oct. 2, in the school.

A short business meeting of the Parent Teacher Group will be held in the auditorium at the beginning of the evening.

After the meeting, parents will have an opportunity to meet their children's teachers and visit classrooms. Parents should be sure to bring their children's schedules with teachers' names and room numbers, according to Jonas Lashmet, director of Guidance.

Parents will spend eight minutes in each of their children's classes getting acquainted with the teachers and finding out what the teachers expect.

After the parents have attended classes, they will attend a coffee hour in the all purpose room and cafeteria.

GROOM'S PARTY was one of the subjects treated in the niches division of the Mokena Garden Club flower show and this entry by Judy Mance and Joan Sak, of Mokena, took the blue ribbon in that category. Lincoln-Way Loses To Bremen Outfit, 19-14

The Bremen football team, like all the other teams in the Southwest Suburban conference has 11 players, including one Vernell Hawkins.

It is possible that it was in the cards for Bremen to win the game last Saturday against Lincoln-Way and that if it hadn't been Vernell Hawkins it would have been someone else. The fact remains, however, that it was Hawkins who scored 18 of Bremen's 19 point total. Lincoln-Way scored 14 points, 7 in the second quarter and 7 in the fourth period.

In brief the Lincoln-Ways did not get enough points.

Apparently someone has been feeding the Bremens meat the past week. On the previous weekend the Braves lost to Thornton Fractional South, 21-12 and in that game Bremen made but 23 yards, rushing and passing. Against Lincoln-Way the Braves racked up 302 yards, 289 of them by rushing and 13 by passing. Lincoln-Way accounted for 246 yards on the ground but only eight through passes.

The Knights won the toss and elected to receive. On the opening kickoff, Larry Martin, the receiver, was hit so hard that the ball squirted away and Bob Hands, the kicker, recovered it on the Knight's 31.

The Braves advanced the ball to the one yard line in four plays but because of a couple of penalties wound up on the 11. There a Bremen fumble restored the ball to Lincoln-Way but the Knights failed to advance and had to punt.

Bremen then proceeded to reel off 57 yards in 10 plays to get on the scoreboard with a touchdown, Hawkins taking the ball the last nine yards. Hands boot for the extra point was good.

In the second quarter Harold Webb, of Lincoln-Way put the Knights back in contention when he went around right end and with some pretty broken field running got into the clear for a run that took him over the goal line -- a neat gain of 88 yards. He again circled the end for the extra point and the score was 7-7.

The Bremens started another march then after a Lincoln-Way punt went into the end zone. Starting from their 20 the Braves went 80 yards in 11 plays. Hawkins helped the Bremen cause with a 47-yard run and then with 30 seconds left he went around right end for nine yards and a touchdown. Hands kick missed so the score at halftime was Bremen 13, Lincoln-Way 7.

That was the situation at the end of the third period but in the last quarter a Bremen man -- Hawkins, of course -- went sailing around end for 40 yards and another touchdown. Again Hands failed to kick the extra point.

Almost five minutes remained on the clock and while that was enough for Lincoln-Way to score once it wasn't enough for the Knights to rack up one or two more touchdowns. In scoring Karkos went 35 yards and Webb advanced the ball 12 yards to set up the situation for Mangun to plunge for two yards and a touchdown with 39 seconds left. Martin carried the ball over for the extra point.

Lincoln-Way will play Oak Lawn there this Saturday afternoon.

Knights To Join In Band Day Program

The Lincoln-Way "Knights" Marching Band and Rhythm Knights, under the direction of Randolph F. Kummer, Robert C. Taylor, and Mrs. James Robison, have accepted an invitation from Northwestern University to appear at its 13th High School Band Day on the Evanston Campus this Saturday, Sept. 28th. The Lincoln-Way groups will join more than 6,500 teenage musicians who will travel from 82 different Illinois high schools to present a spectacular and colorful halftime show at the Northwestern - U.S.C. football game in Dyche Stadium. A crowd of 45,000 is expected.

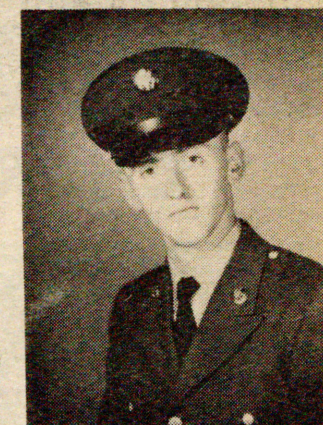

After two weeks of preparation and rehearsal, the band will travel by bus to Evanston on the morning of the game. Bandsmen, directors, drivers, and adult chaperones will be the guests of the university for the day. A morning session will be devoted to an intensive 2 1/2 hour massed band rehearsal of music and formations. In addition, there will be special clinics for drum majors, twirlers, and drill teams, and a marching-playing demonstration specially prepared for the high school students by the nationally renowned 140-piece Northwestern University "Wildcat" Marching Band.

Band Day was originated at Northwestern by John P. Paynter, director of bands, and details of this year's event were under the direction of Frederick Miller, the assistant director. Dr. Raymond F. Dvorak, recently retired director of bands at the University of Wisconsin, will be conductor for the "Men of Wisconsin March" and "The Pilgrim's Chorus from Tannhauser." Miller will direct the massed band in "Goin' Out of My Head."

The halftime will conclude with Paynter conducting "Danny Boy" and the Northwestern "Alma Mater."

Band Day is sanctioned by the Illinois High School Association.

Gleaners Pay Tribute To 50-Year Members

BY VIRGINIA SASS
Fifty-year members of the Maple Street Arber of Gleaners were presented awards by Harwood Stellwagen, president of the Illinois Association of Gleaners, on Sep. 7, at the regular meeting of the Arbor in Homer School. Hosting the affair was the committee of Mr. and Mrs. Stellwagen and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carroll. Fifty-year pins and letters of congratulations from George Ransford, president of the Gleaner Life Insurance Society, were given to Mrs. Ralph Bush of Joliet, Julian Gorham of Dolton and posthumously to Mrs. Beatrice Coe. Mrs. Bush is the daughter of Edward and Bertha Werner, charter members of the arbor. Mr. Gorham is the son of Richard and Carrie Gorham - Richard was a charter member and Carrie was one of the oldest members. Mrs. Coe joined the arbor on May 25, 1918 and was one of the most loyal Gleaner members. She died July 4, this year. Special recognition was given to Albert Marti, a charter member; to Harlow Jungles, who was originally a member of the old Homer Arbor and to Howard Werner, Ralph Bell and Everett Bell, members of long-standing.

A special program, arranged by Mrs. Eugene Anderson, was presented by James D. Frazer, master of ceremonies. After the pledge to the flag, Daniel Sass led the group in the singing of "America The Beautiful". A moment of silent prayer in memory of Mrs. Coe and Mrs. Adella Sproat who died on Sept. 7, was followed by the invocation by Mrs. Wilbur Francis.

The program began with a song and dance, "Hi There, Folks" by Kelly Jo Walsh. A recitation, "My Turtle", was given by Ralph Anderson. Vocal solos rendered were "Getting To Know You" by Sandra Francis, "Memories" by Verda Jo Sass; "My Favorite Things" by Mary Jane Stellwagen and "When You and I Were Young, Maggie" by Daniel Sass. Accompanists were Jo Ann Case of Manhattan, Verda Jo Sass and Mary Jane Stellwagen.

A history of the arbor was given by Mr. Frazer. He served as secretary for 42 years, from 1920 to 1962. He is presently serving as counsellor. He related interesting accounts of early meetings and of the people who have comprised the Gleaner families in the arbor through the years. He told of the organization of the arbor on March 5, 1910. First members were Peter Anderson, Ira B. Anderson, Edward Werner, Bertha Werner, Alfred Sproat, Wm. J. Cleveland, Herbert Cooper, Fred Kennell, Charles Olson, Jessie Blee, Richard Gorham, Charles Johnson, Emma Olson, Peter Haas, Albert Marti and August F. Braun.

Mr. Frazer said that at the time the Gleaner Life Insurance Society was incorporated, there existed a great need for an organization which could provide a social outlet as well as offer life insurance protection to the rural population of the Midwest. Primarily the Society was established to meet this dual need. The Gleaner Society was the first farmer's benefit fraternity, incorporated as the ancient Order of Gleaners and chartered September 25, 1894 at Care, Mich. Only farmers were accepted for membership until 1923, when the constitution was amended permitting members to be admitted regardless of occupation. Early members paid dues of 50 cents a month. Insurance protection was first granted through a "Current cost" plan under which all members paid a flat assessment whenever it became necessary to raise additional funds to pay current claims. When this method of financing proved inadequate, in 1925, these early plans were transferred to legal reserve certificates with premium rates graded by ages.

Today, the Gleaner Society offers a modern flexible product of life insurance certificates and riders to meet the particular needs of every family.

2 Sandburg Students In Merit Semi-Finals

Martha Gay and Gordon Peterson, seniors at Carl Sandburg High School, have been named semi-finalists for national Merit Scholarships, the Merit Corporation announced last Thursday.

Martha, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gay of Palos Park, is interested in studying science and liberal arts at Rice University in Houston, or at Northwestern, or Cornell University. This summer she attended an eight week National Science Foundation seminar at Purdue University, and studied life sciences, doing independent research on cholesterol levels in rats. Only 40 high school youngsters from all around the country were in the NSF group at Purdue.

Martha is editor-in-chief of Sandburg's yearbook, "Poet", and is also active in speech and drama. She has competed in debate as a freshman, in oratorical declamation as a sophomore, and in prose reading and serious reading in her junior and senior years. She played Alice in "Alice in Wonderland" in her sophomore year and also had parts in "Our Town" and in "The Solid Gold Cadillac" last year.

Martha is president of Spanish Club and of Mu Alpha Theta, an honorary mathematics organization. She has also been in girls' athletic association, Mathletes, Dramatics Club, Thespians, National Honor Society, the Aquila, and sings in her church choir. Her hobbies are ballet and horseback riding.

Gordon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Peterson of Orland Park. He hopes to attend the University of Illinois at Urbana and plans to major in mathematics and computer science. His favorite subjects are math and science.

Gordon's wide interests include Citroen automobiles and membership in the National Citroen Club; collecting British stamps; audio and electronics; cooking, and computers. He worked one summer for a local shopper newspaper and also in a paint store.

He appeared in the musical "South Pacific" as a freshman and has been in-involved in Alchemists Anonymous, Camera Club, Aquila, audio-visual aide, Spanish Club, Mu Alpha Theta, and as a tutor of Spanish.

Saturday Sign-Up Day For Swim

Registration for District 230's Saturday Swim School at Carl Sandburg High School will be Saturday, Sept. 28 from 8:30 to 12:30 p.m. There is no Friday night registration this year because of a football game.

The swim school will start October 5 with boys' class at 9, girls' at 10, and the advanced co-ed class at 11 a.m. Everyone must register so that classes will not be overcrowded.

The Saturday program is for students age 5 or over. Each child will be tested and placed in one of nine "grades" of swimming skill. From there on, he can advance at his own rate, being advanced to a higher "grade" whenever his skill improves. The swimmer will not be penalized for missing lessons, nor will he be held up by slower children.

Each class will last 45 minutes, with 30 minutes of instruction and 15 minutes of practice and free time. Punch tickets, good for 10 lessons, will be sold for $7.50. A ticket good for 20 swims is also available for $15. Girls must bring a swimming cap; Sandburg furnishes towels and suits.

Recreational swimming will be on Monday evenings, starting Sept. 30, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. The 75-cent fee will include a suit and towel.

Tickets, which can also be used for lessons, may be purchased in the pool office. Swimming caps are required for girls.

In cooperation with the newly opened Moraine Valley Junior College, District 230 is leasing the Sandburg pool on Wednesday and Thursday from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. for evening college and adult swimming courses. Starting Wednesday, November 20, for nine weeks a beginning swimming course will be offered. A Senior Red Cross Life Saving course starts Thursday, September 19, and lasts for 18 weeks. For information, contact the admissions office of the Moraine Valley Junior College.

For boys and girls not on the high school swimming team, a program of competitive swimming by age group is organized. It is an outgrowth of the learn to swim program and will be an advanced step for talented and interested students who have graduated from the advanced class on Saturday morning (or who can pass an equivalent test given by the Director of Swimming). The class will meet every Monday, Wednesday, and Thursday at 5:45 p.m. starting Monday, September 30. Register in the pool office. Punch tickets can be used.

Gordon has produced three homeroom shows and helped organized the Spanish Club's fiesta last year.

The 15,000 semifinalists appointed last week are among the nation's most intellectually able high school seniors and will compete for some 3,000 Merit Scholarships to be awarded in 1969.

The Semifinalists were the highest scorers in their states on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, given last February in 17,500 schools nation-wide. They constitute less than one per cent of the graduating secondary school seniors in the United States.

Every Semifinalist who becomes a Finalist will be considered for one of the 1,000 National Merit $1000 Scholarships, allocated by state. Many will also be considered for the four-year Merit Scholarships provided by some 400 corporations, foundations, colleges, unions, trusts, professional associations, other organizations, and individuals.

Names of the winners in the 1968-69 Merit Program will be announced by early May 1969. Some 18,700 students received Merit Scholarships in the thirteen annual programs to date. Nearly $60 million in financial assistance to Merit Scholars and their colleges has been expended or committed thru the Merit program to date.

Once More! Orland Water Fluoridated

Yes, people, the water supply of Orland Park is fluoridated.

Village officials would like to get this point impressed upon the public's mind but are having a difficult time.

It has been published that the village board was planning to install the necessary equipment to add the proper touch of fluoride to the water supply. It has been published that the village council had instructed the village engineer to get prices on the equipment. It has been published that the council purchased such equipment and had such equipment installed. It has been published that the Orland Park water supply has been and is now fluoridated.

But not a week passes but someone wants to know if the water is fluoridated. Others want to know how much fluoride is in the water, is it enough, and should they give their youngsters fluoride tablets? This week they had druggists the questions.

According to Fire Chief Arthur Granat, who also is employed in the village water department, the state law now requires that a municipal water supply must contain from .9 to 1.2 parts of fluoride per million gallons of water. Orland Park's water supply is treated according to the state's specifications, Granat said, and according to state authorities no more is needed.

This is the project of Danny Thomas, movie and TV personality, and for many years it has been quite successful, it was said. The hospital is a basic research and clinical institution dedicated to fighting catastrophic diseases in children, including leukemia, muscle disorder, cancer and nutritional disorders, it was explained.

The annual budget at the hospital is $2.5-million. Admittance is by referral of private physicians for children of 16 and under.

The teams will make a house-to-house canvass between 1 and 5 p.m. Oct. 6.

N.L. Schools Buy Four New Buses

The board of education of New Lenox School District 122 recently purchased four new 66-passenger school busses to be used primarily in transporting kindergarten pupils and pupils living less than 1 1/2 miles from the school they are assigned to attend.

The chassis for the new buses were purchased from the Cooper-Show Ford dealer of Frankfort, and the Superior Bus bodies were purchased from the Superior Coach Company of Kankakee. Both firms were the lowest responsible bidders.

Children riding these new busses are assessed a fee of $6 for one child or $9 for two or more children per family per month. Funds received from the student fees are applied to the cost of the bus purchases, and the cost of operating the busing program for these pupils.

The state Office of Public Instruction provides a partial reimbursement to the school district to help in defraying the costs of operating the transportation system for pupils living 1 1/2 miles or more from the school they are assigned to attend.

In addition to these four buses, the New Lenox board has contracted for 10 buses from the Pfeifer Bus Co. which are used primarily on bus routes transporting pupils living 1 1/2 or more miles from the school they are assigned to attend.

Over 1,000 pupils of the 1,812 pupils attending the New Lenox Schools are riding on the system's busses. In addition to this, approximately 160 pupils attending the St. Jude's School, in compliance with the provisions of the Illinois School Code, are also provided transportation by the New Lenox school board.

Treasurer's Office Open On Saturday

After Oct. 1, a penalty of 1% per month is added on the second installment and the property may be sold at the delinquent tax sale if taxes are not paid.

Taxpayers are to use the center door on Jefferson St. to enter the old court house building.

Wheeler-Fitzgerald Vows Said In St. Mary Church

Miss Jayne Lynn Wheeler exchanged marriage vows with Richard A. Fitzgerald on July 13 in St. Mary Church, Mokena.

Father Miles Kowski officiated at the double ring ceremony, uniting the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Wheeler, Frankfort, to the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Fitzgerald, Manhattan. Wedding selections were sung by Nancy Venckus and Helen Ebert, who was accompanied on the organ by June Swanberg.

The bride approached the altar on the arm of her father, carrying a white orchid surrounded by a cascade of daisies. The bride wore a toe-touching gown of white satin and chantilly lace, with the lace trimming the bodice, skirt and the train of the gown. The gown featured a sabrina neckline, long traditional sleeves and a crescent fitting bodice that continued into a bell skirt. Her full chapel-length wattle train was detachable. Her silk illusion veiling was worn shoulder length and was caught to a plateau of open alencon lace petals.

The matron of honor, sister of the bride, Mrs. Judith M. Schuelke, of Indiana, wore a fitted sheath, near floor length of lemon chiffon over taffeta overscored by a chiffon coat, with short sleeves of flowing mantle type back. A hand of white and yellow daisies defined front waistline. She wore a head piece of a trio of daisies in a halo of hairbraid forming a forward style dramatized by a drift of moline all in lemon yellow.

Dressed identically with the matron of honor were the bridesmaids, Linda Wheeler, sister of bride, and Kathleen Fitzgerald, sister of groom.

Dennis R. Wheeler, Frankfort, brother of the bride, performed the duties of best man. Ushers were Randall D. Wheeler, brother of the bride, of Byron, Ill. and L. David Scheulke of Ind.

Open Letter from the HIRSCHS'

Dear friends,

In our files are a number of funeral plans - requests made by men and women now living. These prearrangements have been made in confidence, just as one would make a will. It will be our responsibility to see that every wish is performed exactly as desired.

Prearrangement is wise and logical. It lifts a difficult responsibility from the grieving family, and assures fulfillment of the deceased's wishes.

Respectfully,

Carl Hirsch

Edison Announces Big Construction Program

Chairman J. Harris Ward Wednesday announced a new Commonwealth Edison Company construction program calling for expenditures of $1.6 billion in the five years, 1969 thru 1973, and said the company plans to build a new coal-fired generating unit at a downstate Illinois location.

Edison's previous construction program covering the five years thru 1972 called for an expenditure of $1.4 billion.

Mr. Ward said the new program includes provisions for a new 800,000-kilowatt generating unit to be authorized for service before the summer of 1972. He said the company has asked for bids on a turbine-generator and boilers for the unit but indicated that no site determination has been made.

"With demands of our customers growing at an unusually rapid rate, we must provide additional capacity to meet 1972 electric power requirements," Mr. Ward said. "In addition to meeting this rapid load growth, the new unit, along with 1,237,000 kilowatts of peaking capacity installed or on order, will serve as insurance against possible delays in service dates of some of the nuclear units being built for us.

According to Mr. Ward, Edison's 1968 construction expenditures will be approximately $320 million. Under the $1.6 billion program for the next five years, as now forecast, expenditures will be approximately as follows: $385 million in 1969; $350 million in 1970; $350 million in 1971; $225 million in 1972; and $290 million in 1973. The 1969-73 program contemplates outlays of $850 million for electric generating facilities; $710 million for electric transmission and distribution and $40 million for all other plant.

Mr. Ward said Edison's construction expenditures will require about $725 million of outside financing, in addition to a $75 million issue of first mortgage bonds scheduled for public offering thru competitive bidding next Tuesday.

Mr. Ward pointed out that the Edison construction program, including the size and type of generating units ordered, is subject to continuous review and modification depending on changing business conditions, revisions in Federal income tax laws and variations in pricing and delivery schedules.

In addition to the 800,000-kilowatt unit planned for 1972 service, Edison will install 573,000 kilowatts of peaking capacity by next summer. The new fast-start-up units will supplement 664,000 kilowatts of similar capacity already installed.

The Edison construction plans also include six nuclear generating units scheduled for service between 1969 and 1973. Two 809,000-kilowatt units are being added to the existing 200,000-kilowatt Dresden station, near Morris, Ill. Two more 809,000-kilowatt units are being installed in a new Quad-Cities station near Cordova, Ill., and two 1,100,000-kilowatt units are to be installed in another new nuclear station in Zion, Ill. Iowa-Illinois Gas and Electric Company will have a one-quarter ownership interest in the Quad-Cities' two units.

Allowing for the retirement of older equipment, the scheduled generating additions will increase Edison's net capability by 1973 to about 15,600,000 kilowatts. The company's present net generating capability is 9,771,000 kilowatts.

Speed Changes In Soc. Sec.

Social Security beneficiaries in Will and Cook counties who need to report changes of address or other events that effect the payment of their monthly benefits may now do so thru the social security office at 225 N. Chicago St. in Joliet, William James, district manager, said today. Reports may be made by mail, telephone, or personal visit.

James said that up to now beneficiaries were encouraged to notify the Social Security Administration about the occurrence of these events on postcard forms pre-addressed to one of six social security record centers throughout the country. Beneficiaries received the postcard forms when they initially applied for monthly benefits.

James said that the change in reporting methods is designed to reduce the time needed to change addresses and process other information having an effect on payment of monthly benefits. The change is prompted by the increased capacity of social security district offices to transmit the information over high speed communications circuits to record offices.

In addition to address changes Mr. James said that events that affect receipt of monthly social security checks include employment, marriage or remarriage in some instances, divorce, and death.

The College of St. Francis, Joliet, and Lewis College, Lockport, Monday (Sept. 23), announced plans "to merge, that is, engage in cooperative advancement of Catholic higher education" -- with the goals of strengthening the two schools and offering broader educational benefits to northeastern Illinois residents.

The announcement was made at D'Amico's 214 in Joliet by the chairmen of the colleges' boards of trustees: Sister Francine, O.S.F., Superior of The Sisters of St. Francis, and Brother Maurice Anglim, F.S.C., Provincial for the Central Province of the Christian Brothers.

Earlier, the two boards had approved a formal resolution presented to them by a joint 'Committee on Cooperation', comprised of representatives of the colleges and outstanding civic leaders in Will County and Illinois, with Dr. Robert Crane, University of Illinois at Chicago Circle as consultant.

Their resolution reads in part: "Now therefore be it resolved that The College of St. Francis and Lewis College merge, that is, engage in cooperative advancement of Catholic higher education."

The Committee's resolution noted the educational philosophies and academic programs of The College of St. Francis (1,000 women students on a westside Joliet campus), and Lewis College (2,000 men, 15 minutes away on a 670-acre suburban campus), to be entirely compatible. Combining programs seems to present no financial disadvantages and would bring superior educational ional benefits and opportunities to students, faculties of the colleges, the Catholic Church and metropolitan area residents.

With board of trustee approval to begin joint actions, the college's first step will be to lay plans for combining academic departments and course offerings, said Dean Joseph McFadden, of Lewis College, and Sister M. Claudia, O.S.F., Dean of The College of St. Francis.

"First, we can eliminate duplication of courses and work assignments," explained Dean McFadden. "Our faculties can then devote additional time to upgrading their course materials, participating in new course offerings, or bringing more personal attention to student efforts."

Lewis' president, Brother Paul French, F.S.C., and Sister Anita Marie, O.S.F., president of The College of St. Francis, said the changes should put the two private Catholic colleges in an even better position to prepare young people for living in a rapidly-changing world.

"Pope John's 'Aggiornamento' revealed to all Catholics that the Church must move ahead quickly to cope with significant changes affecting the modern world," said Brother Paul French.

"A major change has been the drastic jump in socioeconomic conditions of working men and women -- enabling so many more persons to attend college. Second, women are now much more active in everyday life than ever before. And, finally, there is a widespread and growing concern for humanity -- as evidenced by recent social and political changes around the world."

The St. Francis President told the group at D'Amico's, "The College recognizes in the intensified cooperative program with Lewis College an opportunity to be of greater service to society.

"Bringing the two schools together -- and the students together in classroom and informal settings -- will mean this area will have the strongest, best-possible educational facility for the years ahead."

The two presidents said no definite plan or timetable of consolidating operations has yet been established.

You've probably noticed that in certain areas grass grows with difficulty or does not look well. Examples of such areas are those in shade or near the edges of a shrub border. (In still other locations the turf may be on steep banks or small areas that are difficult to mow.)

Under such conditions, it may be well to consider a low growing ground cover. The big three of the ground cover plants are pachysandra, myrtle, and English ivy. Although English ivy is not reliably hardy in all parts of the Chicago area, the baltic variety will survive with some protection.

Among the most adaptable of ground covers is myrtle. It's also called periwinkle and Vinca minor. Myrtle is so adaptable that it will grow in sun or shade. It is equally at home in poor or rich soil. Other good features that place this plant among the top three ground covers are its freedom from disease, it's evergreen, and it has an attractive flower. The flowers which appear in late April may be white, purple or blue depending on the variety. The usual color is blue and the best blue variety is Bowles. It produces an unusually large number of flowers and limited numbers are produced in the fall in addition to the heavy spring bloom.

Still another popular ground cover that's suited is pachysandra which is also called Japanese spurge. This plant reproduces by underground stolons so rapidly that it quickly produces a compact mass. The light yellow-green color is well suited to use in the foreground at the base of larger shrubs. As a brief accent, white floral spikes appear in early May.

One of the most attractive uses of this ground cover we have observed was in a border bed. Planted in the beds were clumps of white and yellow daffodils. The pachysandra provided a background for the flowers in spring and hid the drying foliage in early summer.

Although pachysandra, myrtle, and English ivy are the big three among ground covers, they by no means exhaust the list. Three other ground covers could include canby pachistima, rockspray cotoneaster, and creeping juniper.

The least known of these seems to be the canby pachistima. However, its suitability to the area can be confirmed from the fact that it is growing and being produced in several nurseries in the northern part of Cook County. It is also native to the woodlands of West Virginia and Southern Ohio. While it produces a dense growth in sun, it also grows well in shade or part shade.

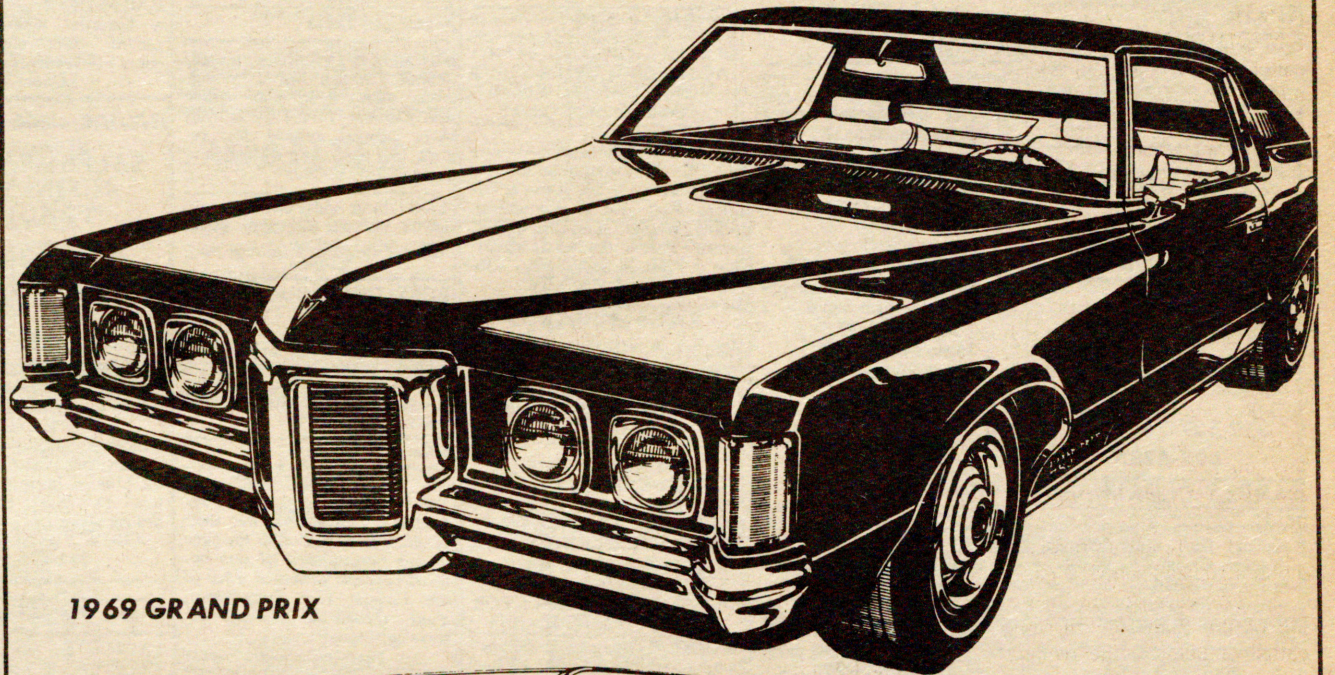

For a delicate, lacy ground cover, the rock spray cotoneaster can be used. This shrub, under ideal conditions, can reach as high as three feet. Usually, however, the flat horizontal branches cling to the ground. It has two seasons of interest. During late spring, it bears a fringe of small light pink flowers which in early fall produce brilliant red berries. The berries are somewhat larger and rounder than the red berried barberies.

Here again is an interesting situation about names. Some people call this group, of which rockspray is but one, "Cotton - Easters". Still others say "Ca-tone-ee-aster". Both are correct, but I use the latter pronunciation.

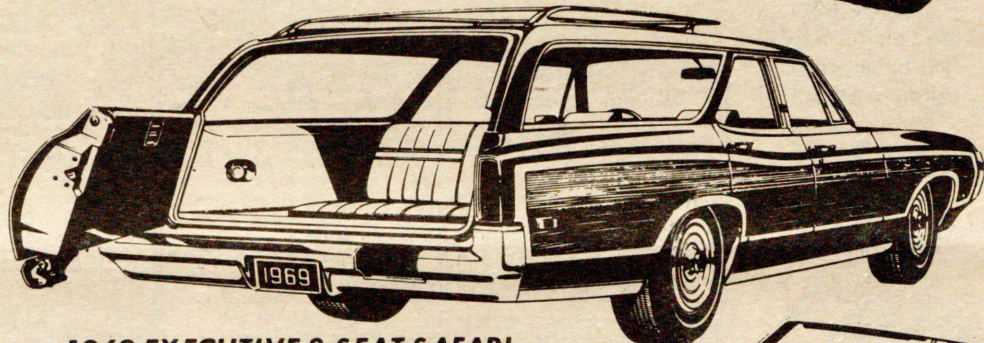

Perhaps the cadillac of all ground covers is creeping juniper. It is of unquestioned hardiness as far north as Nova Scotia. One variety, the Waukegan juniper, was developed in this area. Although the plant may not be over five to six inches high, it may spread an area up to 12 feet in diameter. Several varieties with different color phases are available. Plumosa creeping juniper is a light green in summer and turns purple to lavender in the fall. Procumbens has a foliage that is bluish green.
